Lame Man With a Glass Eye

Murrow Says Gen. Trujillo Paid Off Dominican to Arrange Galindez Death

A lame man with a glass eye can Republic because he knew alive there and could take was described last night as the too much. them to see the professor "in was described last night as the too much, person who was paid by Dominican Republic Generalis-voices of people actually insimo Rafael L. Trujillo to arvolved in the case, the docurange the assassination of mentary made these points:

Jesus de Galindez.

John Joseph Frank, 42Columbia Broadcasting Sysyear-old Washington attorney as well as a copilot for Dominitem news commentator Edward and former FBI agent indicted can Aleilings and has been paid

Columbia Broadcasting System of the chartered plane and former FBI agent indicated can Airlines, and has been paid and former FBI agent indicated can Airlines, and has been paid last week for failing to register as a Trujillo agent, helped lasquez" and "El Cojo" (The Lame One) and last had been which is believed to have spirally, 1956, one month before Professor de Galindez completed a lecture to a Columbia University night class and week by John Secondari, chief walked out into oblivion.

Murrow, in a coast-to-coast, hour-long documentary report carried here by WTOP-TV, detailed what is known of the last days of de Galindez and of Gerald L. Murphy, a Eugene, plane, told fellow American plots in the Dominican Republican pliots in the Dominican Republican Airlines, and has been paid to take large sums of money to Couba to finance a revolution.

Murrow, in a coast-to-coast, hour-long documentary report carried here by WTOP-TV, detailed what is known of the last days of de Galindez and of Gerald L. Murphy, a Eugene, plane, told fellow American had been offered a $250,000.

Murrow, plane of the chartered plane as well as a copilot for Dominican Republican Airlines, and has been paid to take large sums of money to Cuba to finance a revolution.

Murrow as well as a copilot for Dominican Republican Airlines, and has been paid to take large sums of money to Cuba to finance a revolution.

Murrow as well as a copilot to Cuba to finance a revolution.

Murrow as well as a copilot to Cuba to finance a revolution.

Murrow, in a coast-to-coast, helped to sever his connections with the Dominican Republic last Thankagiving and disappeared on the final trip to Cindad Trujillo in which he had intended to clean up his personal basiness.

Another friend reported on the CBS program that Murphy's decision to quit came after he had been offered a $250,000.